CITI CARDS JAPAN PARTNERS WITH REGUS TO PROVIDE ITS DINERS CLUB CARDHOLDERS WITH FREE REGUS BUSINESSWORLD GOLD MEMBERSHIP

Citi Cards Japan, Inc., the exclusive issuer of Diners Club cards in Japan, today announced the launch of a program that will provide Diners Club cardholders in Japan unlimited access to workplace solutions across the globe in partnership with Regus, the world's largest provider of workplace solutions.

The partnership entitles Diners Club cardholders in Japan to free Regus businessworld Gold Membership, a program that provides unlimited access to Regus facilities including office space, meeting rooms, conference and training facilities at premier locations in major cities, business districts and airports around the world.

Regus office solutions also provide business executives and travelers with a professional environment to work and conduct business while away from their office or home.

T S Anil, President of Citi Cards Japan, Inc., said the partnership recognizes and responds to the needs of Diners Club cardholders in Japan. "As one of the leading premium credit cards in Japan, Diners Club is uniquely positioned to understand and support the lifestyle of our affluent customers and their corporate / entrepreneurial needs. In the global marketplace, the ability to conduct business across borders is extremely important, so we're delighted to partner with Regus to provide our members access to high quality space and office solutions, wherever in the world they may be," Mr. Anil said.

All Diners Club cardholders in Japan can obtain complimentary Regus businessworld Gold Membership that will provide:

- Unlimited access to 950 business centers featuring high-speed Internet, located in 70 countries and 400 cities, including 30 business lounges near major international airports, without making reservations
 - 15 locations in Japan with 2 more planned for opening by January 2009
- 35% discount for virtual office packages
- Preferred rates and priority booking for the use of Regus services at any location
 - 10% discount for fully equipped day offices, meeting / training facilities as well as teleconference rooms
 - 35% discount for virtual office packages
- Access to world class business support services through Regus' highly skilled administrative and technical staff

- Waiver of the usual JPY 33,000 (including tax) annual fee for Regus businessworld Gold Membership
- Subscription to Regus' monthly newsletter providing updates on special promotions and campaign information

The fully equipped and staffed business lounges of Regus enable Regus businessworld Gold members to check e-mail, use secure Wi-Fi Internet access (available through Regus computers or cardholders' own laptops), prepare for a meeting or a tele/video conference, or simply relax with a beverage or snack.

"We are very excited to partner with Citi Cards Japan, Inc. and provide their cardholders with our latest service. Regus businessworld enables global business leaders to work productively with greater flexibility, at any time and anywhere they travel in the world," said Jessy Takashi Kure, General Manager – North Asia, The Regus Group.
